BERJAYA University College of Hospitality Hosts Appreciation Dinner for Celebrity Chef Robert Rainford of Asian Food Channel

Accompanied by a procession of traditional Malay Kompang players and Bunga Manggar bearers, celebrity Chef Robert Rainford arrived at Bukit Kiara for an evening of Barbeque & Grill Delights, hosted by BERJAYA University College of Hospitality in style.

With a grand entrance fit for a king, the Asian Food Channel's (AFC) "King of Grill" proceeded to showcase his grilling skills to guests comprising of Ambassadors from Japan, hotel industry partners, BERJAYA Group partners and VIP's such as Dato' Robin Tan and his wife, Datin Hsien.

Chef Rainford revealed his knowledge of the Malaysian grill food culture by demonstrating the art of grilling food delicacies such as 'Ayam Percik', 'Ikan Bakar', 'Lemang', 'Satay' and many more Malaysian gastronomic delights. Apart from the Malaysian Grill flare, Chef Rainford was also being introduced to other specialties such as 'Roti Jala' served with Chicken Curry, 'Murtabak' (local Malaysian pancake with meat) as well as assorted Malaysian desserts such as 'Ais Kacang', 'Cendol', sweet desserts and 'Serai Pandan grated with Cucumber'. Guests were also invited to try Chef Rainford's specialty of the evening – Grill Shrimp with Love Sauce.

"BERJAYA University College of Hospitality would like to thank Chef Rainford and the AFC team for supporting the Malaysian culinary and hospitality industry. The students of BERJAYA UCH have responded well to Chef Rainford's method of teaching and are inspired to achieve greatness in their future career-path. Currently in the pipelines, BERJAYA UCH is organising a food and wine series with local and international celebrities – to share their exciting experiences and knowledge of food and the hospitality industry to our students as well as to the public," commented Ms. Mae Ho, Chief Operating Officer of BERJAYA UCH.
